

Want to Teach Adaptive Snowsports?

The Vancouver Island Society for Adaptive Snowsports (VISAS) at Mt Washington Alpine Resort is looking for:

NEW Volunteer Instructors

You Commit your Time and Energy. We Provide Rewarding Experiences and Great Mountain Benefits.

Information Meeting:
Tues October 23 2024, 7pm - The Filberg Centre

Training and Evaluation Dates:

Ski:	Snowboard:
Nov 24 (Dryland)	Nov 24 (Dryland)
Dec 14/15	Jan 3 (evening)
Dec 19 (evening)	Jan 4/5
Dec 20/21/22	Jan 10/11/12

Plus shadow at least 1 lesson between Dec 19 - Jan 3

Contact: www.visasweb.ca Check our Facebook Page

Email: viadaptivesnowsport@gmail.com

VISAS Adaptive Snowsports NEW Instructor Training 2024-2025

Minimum Requirements:

- 19 years of age
- Commit to 1 day per week during the VISAS winter season (approx 15 days)
- Strong intermediate skier or snowboarder
- Become a Canadian Adaptive Snowsports (CADS) member
- Attend all training below and meet expectations for the CADS level 1 instructor course (Ski or SB)

Ski Instructor Training:

Dryland Training	Intro to VISAS	Nov 24	8:30-4:00
Ski Training	CADS Ski Teaching Methodology	Dec 14/15	8:30-4:00
Dryland Training	ASD/CI Slideshow	Dec 19 (evening)	6:00-9:00
CADS Course*	Lv1 Ski Instructor Course	Dec 20/21/22	8:30-4:00

Snowboard Instructor Training:

Dryland Training	Intro to VISAS	Nov 24	8:30-4:00
Dryland Training	ASD/CI Slideshow	Jan 3 (evening)	6:00-9:00
Snowboard Training	CADS Snowboard methodology	Jan 4/5	8:30-4:00
CADS Course*	Lv1 Snowboard Instructor Course	Jan 10/11/12	8:30-4:00

Shadow

Plus shadow at least 1 lesson between Dec 19- Jan 3

Benefits:

Great Satisfaction helping those with diverse abilities learn to ski or snowboard and have FUN on snow! Enjoy working with a great bunch of like-minded VISAS instructors and receive a Mt Washington Alpine Resort season pass for 2024-25.

*CADS – Canadian Adaptive Snowsports - Level 1 instructor Training and Evaluation